Supervisors of the Checklist

Harriet Cady, Tom Dillon met at the Supervisors office per state law at 11 A.M.

It was also a work session. Tom did take some work home with him to finish that part. Later Harriet left because she was feeling ill, but that was after she did a lot of work and did the updates necessary.

Gloria stayed and finished the work she was doing and all she felt was her responsibility.

When she was finished she put everything away in the file cabinets and made sure all the drawers were locked. There were two drawers that wouldn't lock at all and it will be reported.

Gloria made sure the office door was locked and had to leave

Harriet, Tom, and Gloria had agreed earlier to recess and meet on another date that would be agreed on.
